The Ties That Bind DVD is an award-winning documentary in which filmmaker John Ritchie follows the Jordon family – Kathleen, Bill, Chris and his two siblings – for almost three years. The film shows the complexity around one young man's transition toward a more independent life. Included on the DVD is a studio discussion facilitated by award-winning KCTS moderator, Enrique Cerna, with film participants, family members, individuals with disabilities, and others from Washington state and British Columbia filmed in Seattle in January, 2006.
